--Devoted most of the day to writing a review of Dan Mauro's play Beacons, that I attended a reading of on July 27, 2019 . I think that Dan and Megan and Julie will be pleased with what I have written.

--Downloaded a couple of photo of Cory and Hannah from Facebook today. This looks serious. I'm happy for them both.

Cory's comment on photos: "An awesome few days with the greatest girl I could have asked for"
